

DOVECOTE
naturally

Being different...

DOVECOTE is somewhere different – a place where treatments are individually created for you and a place where we believe time for you to relax is the most important thing we offer...

One: we make time to get to know you a little and what you'd like your treatment to do for you.

Two: we use only natural products which are exquisitely gentle and botanically sourced – effortlessly simple, insanely effective.

Three: drift away, relax and let the warmth and energy of the ancient walls engulf you.

Facials

Facials

We have a range of exquisitely gentle yet very effective natural facial products, from which your therapist will make a selection for a facial that's tailor made to suit your needs.

£45 1 hour

We never rush you and take as long as you need for the treatment to be effective, so the timings we show are just an approximation.

Holistic

Reflexology

Reflexology is an ancient holistic healing technique based on the theory that points on the feet correspond with different areas of the body. We work on your feet to bring about a deep sense of relaxation together with a feeling of balance and harmony to the body.
